1. Academic and Quality

- 1.1 NMIT Ākonga Appeals Procedure was tabled for approval
- 1.1a Coversheet for NMIT Ākonga Appeals Procedure was tabled for information
- It was noted by Committee Members:
 - I approve subject to adding wording that "the HoN must attend all student appeal panels" as per NCNZ education standard
 - Role of HON in nursing academic appeals
 - Appeals Panel has no Ākonga representative member, this should be a requirement.

57/23 RESOLVED that the NMIT Ākonga Appeals Procedure be approved.

CARRIED

- 1.2 NMIT Unsatisfactory Academic Progress Procedure was tabled for approval
- 1.2a Coversheet for NMIT Unsatisfactory Academic Progress Procedure was tabled for information

It was noted by a Committee Members:

"I have a question about Step 2 in the UAP procedure (and I appreciate that step 2 may have been like this for some time). Currently step 2 is that the kaiako/coordinator/advisor talks to the Academic & Integrity Leader (not the CAM) to learn about the procedure. I'd like to suggest that Step 2 should be that the kaiako/coordinator/advisor accesses the procedure, and works with the CAM to agree on an action plan that meets all requirements of the procedure."

58/23 RESOLVED that the NMIT Unsatisfactory Academic Progress Procedure s be approved.

CARRIED

1.3 Te Pūkenga New Delivery Site Application – Request for Otago Polytechnic to be added as a delivery site for NMIT's NZ2861 NZC Foundation Skills (Level 1) was tabled for approval

2.2 Academic Integrity Team Leader Summary Report

2.2.1 Academic Development

The Academic Development Tracking Summary was tabled for information. It was noted:

- The Academic Integrity team is working to finalise Programme Regulations for 2024 including minor updates.
- Work is underway to confirm the internal Development and Change Plan for this year, this will be influenced by decision on whether unified programme development will continue.
- Current development and change work is on track.
- NZQA have confirmed the Degree programme Type 2 change deadline for Semester 1 2025 is 1 July 2024 this is almost a month earlier than previous years.
- The Academic Integrity team will communicate on development timelines for proposed potential degree changes with Curriculum teams.

2.2.2 Unified Programmes Update tabled for information

It was noted:

- Confirmation received that four Maritime unified programmes have been approved for delivery following an extended Request for Information process with Hanga-Ara-Rau and NZQA; the unified resources are not yet available to support delivery.
- No approval yet for NZ Cert in Construction Trade Skills with strands in Carpentry, Allied Trades and Joinery L3. Te Pūkenga Ako Network Director confirmed delivery will commence Semester 2, 2024 at the earliest. As NMIT does not run a mid-year intake, first delivery of a unified programme (if approved) would be Semester 1, 2025.
- Te Pūkenga Academic Centre and Delivery Services team are preparing a submission to the Executive Leadership Team seeking clarification on the future of unified development.
- Urgent programme approvals continue to be approved by Te Ohu Whakahaere Approvals, largely for Work-based Learning Programmes of Study which have been in development for some time.
- Until legislation changes:
 - NMIT must continue to use Te Pūkenga approval processes including the Matters for Central Decision Making Request to become a delivery site for an approved unified programme.
 - In terms of NZQA approval rules only Te Pūkenga can hold new approvals.
- 3 Course and Programme Changes
