Convictions Against the Law

When students apply to the NMIT Health & Fitness Programmes, they are required to make a declaration about whether they have ever been convicted of any offence against the law. It is programme policy to alert the applicant to this requirement. This information is sought so that potential problems regarding their employment may be discussed with applicants before their application is processed.

If you are accepted onto the New Zealand Diploma in Sport, Recreation and Exercise programme you must also complete and return a Vetting Request and Consent form for Approved form, which will be given to you at your interview. Information on the vetting service is available from <http://www.police.govt.nz/advice/businesses-and-organisations/vetting/forms>

Please complete the following and return to:
