

Nursing is a hugely rewarding and challenging career

Nursing is a very rewarding and challenging career that takes a special kind of person. If you have the passion, we can provide the rest. If you dream of becoming a Registered Nurse, working with the elderly or in the mental health sector, we offer applied learning combined with quality tuition and practical clinical placement experiences.

Since 2012 NMIT graduates have a 100% pass rate on Nursing Council New Zealand State Final Examinations.

Related programmes

BACHELOR

Bachelor of Nursing

Level 7

APPLY NOW

PROGRAMME

Certificate in Nursing (CAP) Training Scheme

Level 7

APPLY NOW

NEW ZEALAND CERTIFICATE

New Zealand Certificate in Study and Career Preparation

Level 4

APPLY NOW

Related short courses

SHORT COURSE

Introduction to Clinical Teaching for Registered Nurses

APPLY NOW

Related News

NMIT tutors get $1 million funding boost for research excellence

NMIT degree tutors are conducting cutting-edge research into some of the world's most important issues, including climate change, health, technology and education.

NMIT graduate advocates for health

Amber Ford is a qualified nurse working for Te Piki Oranga in Motueka assisting people with chronic disease management.

Review identifies barriers to success for nursing students

NMIT Academic Staff Members in Nursing tackle attrition and retention of ethnically diverse nurses in a new literature review.

Sense of Belonging Vital for New Graduate Nurses

A new research report by senior academic staff member highlights concerns new graduate nurses have upon entering clinical practice.